Each member speaks only for herself or himself. In the Home Group, the GSR brings our conscience to the DCM as it is shared among the Groups of our District. Groups draw upon the service of our committees. The Newsletter and Meeting List are distributed. All members are welcome to attend.

Good leadership will also remember that a fine plan or idea can come from anybody, anywhere.

"These servants must always be in readiness to do for the groups what the groups obviously cannot or should not do for themselves." The 12 Concepts, p. 23.

Many members who desire to serve beyond the Home Group find themselves walking through the door of the GSR and District Service Meeting. Generally, they have been sober over a year and recognize the Promises coming into their life. Gratitude has replaced despondency; the desire to give back is growing. When you are ready, please consider serving our Groups. All are welcome.

"Our membership ought to include all who suffer from alcoholism. Hence, we may refuse none who wish to recover. Nor ought AA membership ever depend upon money or conformity. ## COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Newsletter: Marty S. reported things are going well with the Newsletter. He asked the District to provide him with names of the groups, as he would like to list them on the meeting list. A meeting list was passed around to be proof read by those attending the District meeting. Marty also reported that the monthly cost of the Newsletter is being raised from $40.00 to $55.00.

Hotline: Barb R. reported 109 calls were received during the month of May. 5 calls were answered by AA Volunteers. This means that the other 104 calls were answered by the answering service and were just individuals seeking information (i.e. meeting times and locations). Barb announced she will be stepping down as Hotline Chair at the end of this term.

Public Information: Not Present

Cooperating with the Professional Community: Not Present

Bridging the Gap: Lynn L. reported the District is getting a lot of referrals and is in need of more temporary contacts to meet this need.

Grapevine: Bill L. reported that people are putting old issues of the Grapevine in the box at the 218 Club. These donated issues are being forwarded to Corrections to be used in the jails.

Archives: Pete J. stated there was nothing new to report. He announced he would be stepping down as Archives chair at the end of this term.

Corrections: Lynn L. reported the Brown County Jail Women's meeting is going very well. However, the men's meeting could use some more support from the outside. The Huber meetings are going well. However there have not been women's meetings on Sunday evenings for the past 3 weeks because there were no women attending from the outside. Sanger B. Powers and Green Bay Correctional Meetings are going well.

2006 Spring Conference: Lynn L. reported that she has taken over one of the co chair positions. A speaker has been found and the various committees are functioning well. The next planning meeting will be on September 17th at 11 a.m. at the Comfort Suites. This is where the conference will be held. There will be a walk through of all the rooms that will be used.

OLD BUSINESS: Bob L. is seeking a co-chair to assist in the planning of the District picnic being held at Green Isle Park on September 11th. He is also seeking volunteers to assist with the set up.

NEW BUSINESS: Due to the cost of the Newsletter going up from 40.00 to 55.00, a motion is needed to approve the increase. Dean H. made a motion to approve the cost of the increase. Brad seconded. Motion carried.

Greg S. has volunteered to fill the vacancy of District 01 Secretary for the remainder of this term. Motion made and seconded. Motion carried.

Bill L. announced that each GSR is eligible for a subscription to the Area 74 newsletter the Now & Then. Bill asked those GSR's present to provide him with their names and addresses.

Committee Info

Summer Picnic / Biannual Election

A Chairperson is needed to organize this event. Please consider this important service. Contact: Bob L. 920-884-8426

Newsletter/Meeting List

Please call in your group name for inclusion in our meeting list. Contact: Marty S. 465-1401 or email: martyjs@athenet.net

Public Information

A "P.I. visit" might include an opportunity to carry the message to schools, local businesses, church and civic groups. It could staff an AA Booth at health fairs in our community. Radio and television announcements can be arranged. Displays of AA literature can be placed and maintained in public areas; meeting lists distributed.

Because we are anonymous and do not promote ourselves, many in our community having no direct contact with AA are uncertain of who we are, what we do and how we do it. Public Information is that connection between AA and the alcoholic 'out there' who is still suffering. Please consider this essential committee when asking yourself, "How can I serve?" Contact Ben W. 491-4104 for more information.

Corrections

The A.A.'s that have been supporting the meeting at the Green Bay Correctional Institute are concerned that there are not any new people from the outside attending. The same group of people has supported it for many years. If they cannot attend, the meeting does not occur. New support from the outside is needed so that the meeting will be around for years to come. Contact: Lynn L. 496-5899 Call in the evening. CLEARANCE REQUIRED!

"Outside" A.A. men are needed for these meetings, as well as for those at the Brown County Jail and Huber Work Release program.

Sam S.'s particular service is to attend and distribute AA literature in our correctional facilities. Every now and then, he'll stop in to your Group seeking soft cover books or a donation to purchase some, but you don't have to wait. Contact Sam directly at 920-660-3341.

Bridging The Gap/Treatment

The purpose of the Bridging the Gap is to connect AA members in a treatment or correctional center with Alcoholics Anonymous in our community. As a temporary contact you would meet with them, go to their first few meetings, and help them get acquainted and comfortable among new friends, talk about getting a Sponsor and a Home Group. To volunteer contact: Bruce K. 498-9750.

Hot Line Volunteers Needed

Our 24-hour Hot Line is in need of men and women volunteers with one year sobriety. Become available to answer questions and offer your experience, strength and hope. You are not tied to the phone and if a call comes at a wrong time, it can be declined. The Hot Line is volunteer friendly. Give Barb R. a call for more info, 437-6484.

Concept VIII

The Trustees of the General Service Board act in two primary capacities: (a) With respect to the larger matters of over-all policy and finance, they are the principal planners and administrators. They and their primary committees directly manage these affairs. (b) But with respect to our separately incorporated and constantly active services, the relation of the Trustees is mainly that of full stock ownership and of custodial oversight which they exercise through their ability to elect all directors of these entities.

Concepts Checklist

- Do we understand the relationship between the two corporate service entities (AA World Services, Inc., the AA Grapevine) and the General Service Board?
- How can the business term "custodial oversight" apply to the trustees' relationship to the two corporate service entities?
- Does my home group subscribe to GSO's bimonthly newsletter Box 4-5-9? The AA Grapevine? Do I?

Since our Trustees bear the primary responsibility for the good conduct of all our world service affairs, this discussion deals with the basic concepts and methods by which they can best discharge their heavy obligations. . . .

It follows, therefore, that the close attention of the Board to such large problems must not be subject to constant distraction and interference. Our Trustees, as a body, cannot be burdened with a mass of lesser matters; they must not concern themselves with the endless questions and difficulties which arise daily, weekly, and monthly in the routine conduct of the World Service Office and of our publishing enterprises. In these areas the Board cannot possibly manage and conduct in detail; it must delegate its executive function.

Here the Board's attitude has to be that of custodial oversight; it cannot be the executive. Hence the Trustees are the guarantors of the good management of A.A. World Services, Inc. and The A.A. Grapevine, Inc. They discharge their custodial obligation by electing the directors of these services, a part of whom must always be Trustees. By this means, the executive direction of these functions is securely lodged in the active service corporations themselves rather than in the General Service Board. Each corporate service entity should possess its own charter, its own working capital, its own executive, its own employees, its own offices and equipment. Except to mediate difficult situations and to see that the service corporations operate within their budgets and within the general frame work of A.A. and Headquarters policy, the Board will seldom need to do more, so far as routine service operations are concerned.

This arrangement is in line with modern corporate business practice. The General Service Board is in effect a holding company, charged with the custodial oversight of its wholly-owned and separately incorporated subsidiaries, of which each has, for operating purposes, a separate management. We have demonstrated to our satisfaction that this corporate basis of operation is superior to any other. . . .

This lesson, as we have observed before, has been learned the hard way. . . . Responsibility and authority rarely could be kept in balance. Point-blank directives, rather than participating decisions, were the rule. In these committees nobody held titles that fully denoted what individual responsibilities actually were; and, naturally enough, those who handled money and signed checks assumed the greater authority. The control of money, therefore, too often determined A.A. policy, regardless of the views of the workers and volunteers at the office who sometimes understood these matters better.

But the moment we consolidated our service office function into a single and permanent corporate structure wherein officers and directors had legally defined titles and duties and responsibilities — the moment such a corporation was provided with its own working capital, employees, and facilities — the moment its directors could legally vote in proportion to their actual responsibilities — the moment we were able in this way to define clearly executive authority — from that moment we began to see great improvement. More harmonious and effective conduct of our business has been the result ever since.

We finally learned what the business world well knows: that we could not, at the level of top management, run a large, active and full-fledged business entity with loose-jointed committees and departments. . . .

. . . There is always a powerful connection between money and authority. Whenever we concentrate money, we shall inevitably create the temptation for the exercise of too much executive authority, an undesirable condition for us. Therefore we should strenuously avoid placing too much money or too much authority in any one service entity. These are potent reasons for maintaining separate incorporations for each of our active services.

. . . we should strenuously avoid placing too much money or too much authority in any one service entity.

However, experience dating from our earliest days strongly suggests that future Trustees and service workers, in the supposed interests of accounting simplicity, tax savings, and hoped-for efficiency, will be periodically tempted to go in for concentrations and consolidations of one kind or another. Should this be again attempted, we know that the risk of making an administrative shambles out of the total operation will be great indeed.

These observations are not intended to bar any future needful change. It is urged only that we avoid unnecessary repetitions of those painful experiences and mistakes of the past which sometimes resulted from too much concentration of money and authority. It can only be left on the record that we still see no workable way to convert the Board of Trustees into an active, "all-purpose" service corporation.

Fuzzy Thinking: forming reality to fit my desires.

Prayers of gratitude are especially good for alcoholics. They kill egoism and awaken us to life's true values.

WHAT'S NEW IN THE WOLF'S DEN?

We're coasting into the eight month of the year and there seems to be no relief from the humid weather. In the program of Alcoholics Anonymous there is a promise of relief from the burden of guilt and shame we all carry from the harm we have caused people in our lives and that is Step Eight of our program. "Made a list of all persons we had harmed and became willing to make amends to then all."

With pen and paper, we list all of the people we had harmed and although this may stir up painful memories and festering guilt and shame it is a 'must do' step in order to begin to clear away the wreckage of the past. We have initiated this process when and if we've done a complete and honest Fourth Step. It is now time to redouble our efforts to set things right.

This step not only begins the healing process towards our fellow-man and those we had wronged, but is a time for personal healing. It is with Gods' help and guidance that a revelation takes place within us which leads to a cleansing of the spirit and a fresh and new outlook on life. It is a 'must do' step in order to become honest and sets the stage for the Ninth Step which is in fact the "action" step. This most critical step will be studied in depth in our next issue...until then... 'Godspeed' in your working this soul-searching step!!

"Congratulations" to all those celebrating their sobriety anniversary this month. A very 'Happy Birthday' to all those born this month too! Your birthstone is the Peridot, Sardonyx (whatever that is?).

IN CASE YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship designed and administered by a bunch of ex—drunks whose only qualification for membership is that they can't hold their liquor and don't want to learn how. It has no rules, dues or fees — nothing that any sensible organization seems to require. At meetings the speakers start on one subject and end up talking about something entirely different, concluding by saying "I don't really know anything about the program except that it works".

The groups are always broke but always seem to have money; they are always losing members, but always seem to grow; they claim A.A. is a selfish program but always seem to be doing things for others. Every group passes laws, rules, edicts and pronouncements, which everybody blithely ignores. Members who disagree with anything are privileged to walk out in a huff - quitting forever —only to return as though nothing had happened and to be greeted accordingly.

Nothing is ever planned more than 24 hours ahead — yet great projects are born and survive magnificently. Nothing in A.A. is according to Hoyle, how can it survive? Perhaps it is because we have learned to laugh at ourselves; God made man — He made laughter too. Perhaps He is pleased with our poor efforts and makes everything right no matter who pushes the wrong buttons. Maybe He is pleased not with our perfection but with our sincerity; maybe He is pleased because we are trying to be nobody but ourselves.

We don't know how, but it works; and members keep receiving their dividend checks from the A.A. investment. IT'S SMART TO STAY SOBER.
