○ DCM Report- It looks like summer is here for real. Schedules, including mine get busier than normal with freedom to move about unheeded by conditions. Time this month has by and large been in preparation mode for the East Central Regional Conference later this month and the Area Committee Meeting on July 18th in Three Lakes. I need to make a better effort to get Aaron O up and running on DCM responsibilities, one of them the writing of this agenda. I moderated the monthly DCM Zoom Call which is held the first Tuesday of each month where we discuss our strengths and more so the challenges each of us face in the carrying the message of hope to the still suffering alcoholic. We in District 01 are blessed in many ways. Let us all be diligent and vigilant to keep it so. To the best of my knowledge, at the writing of this letter, all 50 seats aboard the Brewer Bus are spoken for. Well done!
Yours in service;

Reports

Meets – Wednesdays 9:30 am
Location – The Bridge
The focus of this meeting is Spirituality. We have 6 – 10 people weekly. We read from the magazine “Came to Believe”. This is a book of short stories published by AA, written by alcoholics, and their stories of how they came to believe and how they work their recovery on a spiritual basis. Come join us as we trudge the road to happy destiny!

Staffing the Emplify meetings with a voluntary sign up system has been a challenge from month to month. I will be opening each months schedule for volunteers to grab spots and then make assignments to fill any remaining openings. I will then send a copy of the completed schedule to Daniel at Emplify who coordinates our group.

- There was a grapevine meeting held at the early risers group on Saturday, May 23rd where I had the opportunity to share a passage out of the grapevine book titled “Our 12 steps”. The passage was on the 5th step with it being the 5th month of the year. It was a wonderful opportunity to share grapevine literature in a meeting with around 30 people in attendance.
- The Grapevine app is a wonderful resource full of daily quotes, stories and a fully-searchable archive of all grapevine articles published going back to its first article published in 1944.
- Please note that there is a one page section on the green bay AA website devoted to the Grapevine and that link is:

Here is the WITP June group update.

Women in the Present June GSR Report
Women in the Present in person meeting meets Thursday’s at 7:00 PM at The Bridge. The meeting remains well attended, and we are grateful that newcomers continue to find our group on a regular basis.
Our group is currently planning a women’s kayaking fellowship event for July, which we are looking forward to as an opportunity for connection and recovery outside of the meeting room.
Our Hotline Representative has recently stepped down from the position, and we are currently in the process of filling that service opportunity.

Greetings all along the Broad Highway!

The Monday Morning Big Book Group holds a closed meeting every Monday morning of the year at 8:30am at the 218 Club where we study the solution offered in the Big blue book called Alcoholics Anonymous. Currently we study from the title page all the way to the end.

We hold our Business Meetings on the 3rd Monday of the month following our regular group meeting. The next Business Meeting will be this coming Monday, June 15th in which we will discuss the first ever content change of the meeting. A portion of our group would like to concentrate more upon the first 164 pages and less emphasis on the stories in the back of the book. It should prove to be an interesting discussion, which is healthy in an AA group.
